RALEIGH SALTWATER SPORTFISHING CLUB

King Mackerel Tournament
Sea Water Marina, Atlantic Beach, NC
August 1-3, 2008

Tournament Rules

- Tournament Headquarters is Sea Water Marina on the Causeway at Atlantic Beach, NC for Registration (Check-in), Weigh-in and Awards. Registration/check-in to pick up assigned number is Friday, August 1, 2008 from 4:00 P.M. until 9:00 P.M.
- Captains' meeting is Friday at 7 P.M. Attendance at the captains' meeting, although not required, is highly recommended. Any rule changes, interpretations, modifications and/or clarifications will be announced at the Captain's Meeting and will become official. It is the captain's responsibility to know and understand any rule changes or interpretations at the Captain's Meeting. All decisions made by the Rules Committee are final.
- The entry fee shall be $250 per boat (postmarked) before July 1, 2008. Any entry fee (postmarked) after July 1, 2008 and until 9:00 P.M. on August 1, 2008 shall be $300. A Sponsor, Tournament Official or Committee Member if properly registered is eligible to fish and win any prize. The Committee reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone.
- Competition hours are from Saturday 6:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. unless terminated by the Rules Committee. A boat may not be replaced after 9:00 P.M., August 1, 2008. All times mentioned in the Tournament rules are GPS Eastern Standard Time.
- Weigh-in is from 3:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. Saturday, August 2. Weigh-in Tournament Headquarters in Sea Water Marina, Atlantic Beach: Entrants weighing fish must pass a tournament official stationed at the channel entrance to Sea Water Marina by 6:00 P.M. Each boat should have its boat number prominently displayed upon approaching the channel entrance.
- There will be no bad weather days. Fishing will be captain's choice unless the Rules Committee with the guidance of the Federal Safety Authorities decides that the weather might jeopardize the safety of the participants. If the Rules Committee decides that the weather might jeopardize the safety of the participants and the tournament is cancelled, all boats will receive a refund check of 75% of entry fee.
- Eligible species are King Mackerel (Scomberomorus cavalle) and Dolphin (Coryphaena hippurus) only. Only one fish per boat per species shall be weighed. No king mackerel with a fork length (measured from the tip of the nose to the fork of the tail) of less than 32 inches will be accepted. Please remember the future and carefully release all fish not to be entered in the tournament.
- Only 6 lines may be fished at a time. All fish must be caught on hook and line.
- For purposes of safety, all boats must adhere to USCG regulations for their size and must have VHF radio on board. Tournament Committee members will monitor VHF Channel 72.
- There is no checkout, however no lines in the water before 6:00 A.M. Saturday. You must exit and enter from a North Carolina Inlet. Observation boats will be present during fishing hours. The Tournament Committee reserves the right to inspect all boats entered in competition at any time. Once you enter into competition you may not return to any dock, marina, or make any stops until you reach check-in area. As safety is of prime importance, the Tournament Committee or Tournament Headquarters may grant permission for exceptions. All anglers that are on board when competition begins must be on board when returning to Tournament Headquarters to weigh a fish.
- In the event severe weather conditions or medical conditions forces participants to make landfall, they must return to Tournament Headquarters and check out prior to returning to competition.
- Two or more boats seen congregating during competition hours may be subject to disqualification from the tournament. Licensed bait barges are exempt.
- Fish must be weighed in from the boat from which caught. The boat must be unassisted and operational under its own power when presenting a fish for weigh in. No trucking or overland transportation to weigh-in station is allowed.
- Boat entry numbers should be displayed at check-in for identification purposes. Each boat should have its number acknowledged by the official if weigh-in time is approaching.
- Fish must be handled and presented for weigh-in by an angler from the boat. All fish presented to Weighmaster shall become the property of RSWSC. Fish submitted for weigh-in must be fresh and in edible condition.
- All fish entered are subjected to the scrutiny and inspection of the Rules Committee, the Weigh Master and a fisheries biologist and must not be mutilated in any way, except for hook and gaff punctures. Mutilation is defined as any damage that impairs the fish's fighting ability. Decisions on mutilation and fish condition shall be made by the Weighmaster and will be final. The Weighmaster has the right to refuse any fish.
- Upon weighing your fish, you will be presented with a weight receipt with printed information. Once reviewed and signed, this receipt will stand as accepted.
